

Modulo Times Table Design Dock

This is a modulo Times Table project. The project consists of a circle with times tables visualized on it using dots and lines. The circle and its points are represented using JavaFx. Main sets up the stage and the buttons and PointVisualization creates the points and manages all the lines that will appear in the circle.

